Conditions

Riders must be at least 10 years old. Young riders aged 10 - 15 years inclusive, must be accompanied by an adult.

Riders take part at their own risk. Riders must observe the Highway Code, obey the Golden Rules of the Road (included in the Entrants' Pack sent to each registered rider) and to follow the instructions of the event organisers.

All cyclists should wear a suitable cycling helmet

Burgess Hill, Haywards Heath and District Round Table and Burgess Hill District Lions (or their members and other event organisers) cannot be held responsible for loss or damage to personal effects, or for death or illness of or injury to any participant, or loss, damage or injury to the general public or their property. By supplying your postal and/or email address you agree to receive more information about the Burgess Hill Bike Ride by post or email but your details will not be used for any other purpose.

Health

Riders must ensure that they are medically fit to take part in the Bike Ride. If in doubt riders must get clearance from a doctor before participating. The organisers recommend that riders practice prior to the event, gradually increasing distance to suit.
